Re: Materials List

I am in the process of changing the format of the materials list with the following goals in mind:

1. Avoid brand-name specificity (allow parents freedom in where they shop).
2. Eliminate items that are not used regularly (please look through your items with this in mind).
3. Easier format for parents with multiple students to use.
4. More attractive format to represent the school well as parents look through the rack at Walmart etc.
5. The school will provide commentarius binders.
6. The school will provide clear protective sheets for 2nd and 3rd (talk to Mary Jones to place your order).

If you have any corrections or concerns regarding the new format please get them into me by July 21. Thanks!
